MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

Blue streamer—FIRE;

Blue—RAIN or SNOW;

With book above—"WILL WARMER

IF BLACK'S BREATHES—COLDER" will be;

Unless black's shown—no change

we'll see.

80°—The average weather are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

A pair of very chubby legs.

Inset in a scatrous hose;

A pair of little stubby boots,

With rather doubtful toes;

A little kill, a little coat;

Cut as a feather coat,

And, as before, stands in state,

The future's "coming man."

If eyes, perchance, will read the stars

And search their unknown ways;

Perchance the human heart soul

Will open to their gaze;

Perchance their keen, dazzling glance

Will be a light in the light;

Those eyes that now are wistful bent

On some "big fellow's" kite.

These hands—those little, busy hands—

So sticky, small and brown;

These hands whose only mission seems

To pull all order out;

Who is it that within their grasp?

Those eyes that now are wistful bent

On some "big fellow's" kite.

In sturdy hold they clasp.

Oh, blessings on those little hands,

Whose work is yet undone;

And blessings on those little feet,

Whose road is yet to tread;

And blessings on the little brain,

That have not learned to play!

Whate'er the future hold in store,

God bless the "coming man!"

TOUGH GANG.

Arrest of Three Dishes at the C. and G. Depot Yesterday.

Charles Smith, said to be from Cincinnati, Charles Desmond of St. Louis, and Frank Brown of nowhere, aged from 21 to 28, were bilious at the C. and G. Station yesterday.

A pistol shot from the party caused their arrest.

Smith had a skeleton key, and three pistols, evidently belonging to the gang, were picked up near by.

A charge of carrying weapons was preferred, and on trial Judge Wadsworth fined each $25 and costs with thirty days in jail.

The gang is a tough one, and Chief Orr is of the opinion that they may be wanted elsewhere.

What Thomas Harrison of North Dakota Owes to Paine's Celery Compound.

Thomas Harrison is the proprietor of the famous Harrison farms of North Dakota. He holds the office of Notary Public and is Coroner of Traill county. He writes from Blanchard, North Dakota:

"Two years ago, when the grip was prevalent in this country, I suffered very much from this trouble. The disease lingered with me until it developed into cataract of the head. For this loathsome trouble I tried many remedies advertised for cataract without any permanent relief, and while spending the winter of 92-93 in Los Angeles I was treated by a specialist without any better results. Seeing Paine's Celery Compound advertised, I tried it, not expecting much relief, as I thought I could not be cured. I used one bottle as directed, and was entirely relieved and permanently cured. This was over six months ago and I have not experienced a return of any of the symptoms, though I have been exposed to the inclemency of the weather and cold this winter when had been troubled with the cataract I would have had cold after cold all winter. I will cheerfully answer all inquiries as to the correctness of my statements. Many around here are using the Compound on the strength of my recommendation. It makes people well."

Thin people with depleted, diseased blood run big risks. Careful men and women all over the country are building up their systems and storing the nerve centers with energy now it is spring. They are taking that remarkable blood purifier and nerve food, Paine's Celery Compound.

It cannot be repeated too often that the blood is the fountain which supplies every part of the body. If this life giving medium lacks vigor and richness, nerves, brain, heart, kidneys and lungs immediately suffer. The weakest spot will give way first.

If you find yourself growing thin, nervous, without appetite—look out. You are starving some important organ through inappropriate nutrition.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Benjamin F. Williams Cuts His Throat Early This Morning.

Benjamin F. Williams, for many years Principal of the Public School in the Fifth Ward, made a gash in his neck and throat with a razor early this morning, with suicidal intent.

Mr. Williams has been a remarkably successful citizen.

Starting in life with only one arm—the other having been lost in the machinery of the old hemp factory where he was a boy working there—and with nothing but perseverance for capital, he accumulated considerable property and raised an interesting family.

Ill health compelled him to give up his school, and he started a grocery store in part of his residence, corner Second and Union streets.

Recently he lost a son by death, and this, coupled with brooding over dull times, appears to have unsettled his mind.

This morning he went to the rear part of his residence and attempted to end his life.

Fortunately the attempt failed and his wound, though a bad one, is not considered fatal.

Dr. Pangburn was called and dressed the wound.

Powdered tea 10 cents a pound. CRAWFORD & CAVY.

W. C. Deming, formerly of Mt. Olivet, will deliver the oration at Vienna, O., on Memorial Day.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has a large line of fine Millinery—the best goods that money could buy—which must be sold at the price of ordinary goods.

A Madison county man has some whiskey which he claims is seventy years old. It may be that Christmas don't come but once every 100 years in Madison.

SUGAR SCANDAL

The Washington Correspondents Decline to Testify.

Their AttorneyAppeared Before the Committee and Argued

That the Committee Had No Authority to Compel His Client to Answer. The Correspondent Declined to Free Those Who Gave That Information.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The senatorial bribery committee continued its inquiry Friday into allegations concerning the sugar trust and its connection with the tariff bill.

John H. Shriver, the Washington correspondent of the New York Mail and Express, was the first witness called, and the committee endeavored to determine the identity of the wire manufacturers who appeared in a dispatch sent by Mr. Shriver to his paper as the authority for a statement that certain democratic senators had acceded to the demands of representatives of the sugar trust in conference with Arthur, and given in this way. Mr. Shriver refused to give any information whatever on this point, and said he would abide the consequences.

He was told that he might place his liberty in jeopardy by revealing his identity to the reporters, but he had joined the Dittenbacher of New York, who also represents correspondent Edwards, of the Philadelphia Press, as his counsel, and, under his advice, he would refuse to answer questions concerning the wire given him in confidence. Mr. Shriver was then summarily dismissed for the present.

Judge Dittenbacher, accompanied by Correspondent Edwards, then appeared before the committee and argued that the committee had no authority to compel his testimony. He gave the committee some advice as to the method of conducting the examination, and cited the case of Hallett, Kibbou in support of his contention that the committee had no right to compel a witness to answer by jeopardizing his liberty.

Judge Dittenbacher claimed that there were three grounds only which would justify a person in telling matters given him in confidence, namely, to save his country from treason, to save a human life from the gallows, and to save a woman from a life of infamy.

At the conclusion of his argument, the committee held a short conference as to measures for obtaining information from unwilling witnesses, and then recalled the two. His examination was conducted with vigor, but he curtailed direct statements that he would not give the committee the names of persons who had furnished him with confidential information on which he based his allegations concerning the sugar trust and the tariff bill.

It is evident that the committee is securing these negative answers to fortify itself in reporting the present aspect of the investigation to the senate.

Mr. Shriver was then recalled, and he also refused to answer the questions about the identity of the wire manufacturer who is alleged to have overheard a conference between democratic senators and members of the sugar trust, in which the sugar schedule of the tariff bill was fixed.

Mr. E. W. Washburn, correspondent of the New York Daily American, was also recalled, but he was given a respite until Monday on his explanation that he desired to be represented by counsel, as the other witnesses had been.

The afternoon session of the committee was adjourned to a conference of the members as to what means should be taken to compel witnesses to answer questions. The Kibbou case proved a snare, and there was considerable diversity of opinion as to what could be done in view of the fact that the Kibbou was in jail, in refusing to answer questions put to him by a senate committee.

It was finally agreed to let the matter go over until Saturday, when the committee will endeavor to reach a conclusion.

PENITENTIARY SCANDAL

The Prosecution Closes and the Defense Begins Introduction of Evidence.

COLUMBUS, O., May 26.—The penitentiary inquiry probe paid off Friday, Capt. Playford being corroborated in most of his testimony by the testimony of a witness who knew the inside workings of the prison.

Guard Grimes said that he had never heard the warden swear in the presence of prisoners, but that he had, during war times, been able to excel him in this regard. Mr. Grimes denied that he had ever taken meat from the prison kitchen for his own use, but said that he had taken some house to poison a dog.

L. F. Quigley, a sub-guard, did not hesitate to make a somewhat sensational statement that on the night of January 6, or rather in the morning between 12 midnight and 1 a.m., he had seen the wardens come home drunk.

Charles E. Bartram said that the warden had treated him in an unkind manner, but when asked to see a witness, several gentlemen who Capt. Playford's attorney desired to call refused to testify.

When the testimony for Playford closed the defense took up their case. John T. Ryan, in charge of the prisoners, testified that every time he had taken some action, except in the case of Matron Ressinger, and in that case there were several conferences between the warden and deputy and a mutual conclusion to take no action.

Col. James said there has been no crap shooting in the prison for a year as far as he knew, and he meant no indignity to Capt. Playford when he changed that official's order regarding the amount of money which each prisoner might retain.

L. F. Quigley, a sub-guard, did not hesitate to make a somewhat sensational statement that on the night of January 6, or rather in the morning between 12 midnight and 1 a.m., he had seen the wardens come home drunk.

Charles E. Bartram said that the warden had treated him in an unkind manner, but when asked to see a witness, several gentlemen who Capt. Playford's attorney desired to call refused to testify.

When the testimony for Playford closed the defense took up their case. John T. Ryan, in charge of the prisoners, testified that every time he had taken some action, except in the case of Matron Ressinger, and in that case there were several conferences between the warden and deputy and a mutual conclusion to take no action.

Col. James said there has been no crap shooting in the prison for a year as far as he knew, and he meant no indignity to Capt. Playford when he changed that official's order regarding the amount of money which each prisoner might retain.

MASSING OF MINERS.

Indians Seize a Train En Route for Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 26.—Friday evening over seven hundred coal miners rode into Terre Haute on a captured freight train over the Big Four railroad. The train was captured at Grant, a few miles south of this city. When the train stopped the miners, unarmed, on no resistance being offered.

When the train reached here it was annulled, and the miners are waiting to capture the next west-bound train.

They intend to go to Indianapolis.

They were armed with sticks, stones, and clubs.

At the conclusion of his argument, the committee held a short conference as to measures for obtaining information from unwilling witnesses, and then recalled the two. His examination was conducted with vigor, but he curtailed direct statements that he would not give the committee the names of persons who had furnished him with confidential information on which he based his allegations concerning the sugar trust and the tariff bill.

Mr. Shriver was then recalled, and he also refused to answer the questions about the identity of the wire manufacturer who is alleged to have overheard a conference between democratic senators and members of the sugar trust, in which the sugar schedule of the tariff bill was fixed.

Mr. E. W. Washburn, correspondent of the New York Daily American, was also recalled, but he was given a respite until Monday on his explanation that he desired to be represented by counsel, as the other witnesses had been.

The afternoon session of the committee was adjourned to a conference of the members as to what means should be taken to compel witnesses to answer questions put to them by a senate committee.

It is evident that the committee is securing these negative answers to fortify itself in reporting the present aspect of the investigation to the senate.

LIZZARD IN THE MILK.

A Brooklyn Woman Discovers Her Grocer's Combination.

New York, May 26.—Mrs. Mary Cummings, of Brooklyn, will not rely on Grocer Schnitberg, her next door neighbor, to furnish her with morning supply of milk any longer. Mrs. Cummings went to Schnitberg in search of milk, but when she returned home, she found the lizard had leaped on the table. The sight of the reptile almost gave the woman a fit. When she returned to the store and demanded an explanation, the grocer was unable to explain, declaring that he was not the owner of the pump that furnished the water supposed to be in the milk. This did not satisfy the woman, who then exhibited the lizard to a chemist, Kent. Mrs. Cummings is of the opinion that there was another reptile in the milk, and that she swallowed it.

Notwithstanding the scarcity of plants in this neighborhood quite an increase in the aggregate has been put out during the past year.

At this writing the backwaters are rapidly spreading over the cornfields of C. D. Degman and others, who had a nice stand of corn ready to plow in the creek bottom.

Frank Williams of Limestone was here Monday en route to visit relatives in Fleming and Lewis counties. He was accompanied from here by his cousin, Mrs. C. D. Degman.

Robert Cox of Lewisburg was driving our town Sunday in company with a young lady when his horse became frightened at the holing of an umbrella, and, in endeavoring to save the occupants to the ground. Fortunately neither were seriously hurt.

If this scribble is at the Republican meeting Saturday evening in May, it will be for the distribution of a composition of one delegate for every one hundred pupils of common school age, irrespective of color, party or previous condition. Then the people of each school district in the county are to be selected a suitable man to represent them in the County Convention to be held later.

Preparations for memorial exercises at the public school were well completed. The crowd in front of the school will be an address by Dr. A. N. Kells, who will joy the distinction of making the first Republican speech that was ever delivered in this city, and I believe the speech was made at this place at a Whig pole meeting in 1856. Many of the citizens are still living who heard him at that time, and are still at the present of hearing the "deadly earnest" and "college upstart," as he was then styled by some of the speakers, speak as an honored veteran.

The Blue Stars of Mayville challenge the Ripley boys in a game of ball to be played any Saturday, ages from 10 to 14. JOHN SCOTT, Captain.
